BACKGROUND

MASE is committed to mentoring, encouraging and recognizing new leaders in the field of special education. To that end, this award is given annually to a new leader who exhibits the leadership excellence required to be effective in challenging times. These skills include: a willingness to risk, an ability to collaborate, skills in listening and communicating, and a broad understanding of the educational system. Further, this award is given to a new leader who has demonstrated passion and commitment to the MASE mission of shaping policies and practices which impact the quality of education for students with disabilities.

THE AWARD

1. The award is presented annually at the MASE/MASA Spring Conference.
2. The recipient will receive a plaque.
4. A news release will be distributed to pertinent media in the coverage area of the recipient.
